

wedding style

YOUR GUIDE TO WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE WEDDING WORLD

Turn heads

Step into the new Ward & Wylie Shop for a beautiful selection of hand-crafted bridal head pieces and accessories for the whole bridal party. Overflowing with silk flowers from around the world and feathers dyed to match, the South Yarra shop is a treasure trove of antique jewellery, unusual trims, vintage veiling and exquisite feather craft. They also offer a bespoke service by appointment. www.wardandwylie.com

Stick together

A wardrobe malfunction is the last thing you need on your wedding day. Keep your big day disaster free with the Bug Catcherz Lacebugz wedding day adhesive tape. The two different shaped tapes in the pack are great for holding veils and corsages in place and keeping spaghetti straps where they belong. www.licoricemint.com

Highbrow package

Want the A-list treatment at your hen's party? Treat yourself to Australia's leading eyebrow specialist with Sharon-Lee's hen's highbrow parties. For $150 each, have your eyebrows sculpted and tinted to perfection in the luxurious surrounds of Sharon-Lee's South Yarra studio while sipping on champagne and nibbling canapes. Goodie bag included. www.sharon-lee.com.au

No fuss weddings

Not sure how to start planning your wedding or too busy to find the time? To help make finding the right suppliers easy check out Wedding Belles Event Planning. By enlisting the expertise of a professional planner you could save time, money and most importantly you can relax. www.weddingbellesplanning.com.au

Look divine

Throughout history, pearls have been considered a symbol of love, beauty and matrimonial harmony. For exquisite and unique jewels for your wedding day look no further than Divine Pearls. Lovingly hand-crafted, Divine Pearls emphasise the natural radiance and classic beauty of freshwater pearls. To view the collection, take a peek at their brand new website. www.divinepearls.com.au

SAY I DO IN PARADISE

If you have always dreamed of getting married in an exotic location, check out Take Us To Thailand. The Melbourne-based group specialises in planning and managing weddings in Thailand so you don't have to lift a finger. Hotels and resorts are independently and personally sourced so you know you are getting the best. With everything from invitations to food to accommodation arranged, you can enjoy every moment of your wedding and your time in together in Thailand. And if you opt for a deluxe package they can even take the hard work out of organising a hen's and buck's night, as well as two cocktail parties to welcome and farewell your guests. www.takeusto thailand.com

Tea time

For a scrumptious looking afternoon tea you can't go past Stoneage's gorgeous tea sets. For a playful approach to traditional tea time, this colourful collection of teapots, tea cups and plates in various shapes and styles make a gorgeous bomboniere or gift to your bridesmaids. www.stoneageceramics.com