

Getting married in Thailand is now incredibly popular with people from all over the world. Rarely a day goes past without a wedding ceremony taking place somewhere on Koh Samui. Many couples who have been on holiday here quickly return to make their pledges, but often have to do painstaking research to find out which venue is best.

"Take Us To Thailand" is the latest service to offer innovative, stylish, memorable and cost effective weddings and celebrations on Koh Samui and Koh Tao. Their knowledgeable and experienced team in the UK and Australia ensures that you can host your ideal wedding on Samui. Their extensive information on the best locations, hotels, restaurants and other service providers enables them to offer outstanding recommendations for your wedding, creating customized functions within your budget. You'll also receive exceptional service at competitive prices.

A wedding in Thailand provides the perfect incentive for your friends and family to not only enjoy your "big day", but also to indulge in the holiday of a lifetime. The "Take Us To Thailand" consultants can provide all the necessary information regarding the best value flights and accommodation for your guests and can arrange all aspects of your wedding or celebration, including wedding ceremonies, flights, accommodation, venues, catering, entertainment, flowers, invitations and beauty services. They can also help you arrange your honeymoon, hen and stag parties, sight-seeing tours and sporting activities.

Check out the website at www.takeustothailand.com.

Laem Set Resort and Spa

This large, open "sala" bordering the sea and the pool is made from four old Thai wooden houses dismantled and reassembled here in this new form. On the very far side of the pool in this picture (right), in the area by the rocks and bordering the sea, are half a dozen tables wired to the waiters' area by call-buttons. You can ask to dine here and you will be left in complete privacy under the stars. The waiters will attend you to refresh your drinks or change courses when you summon them.

The restaurant open 07:00 am - 10:00 pm.
Telephone number 077-424393, 077-233299
Fax : 077-424394
Internet contact: inn@laemset.com

*"same...same restaurant...
But different"*